Although October is designated as Pastor Appreciation Month, we at Sharon appreciate our Pastor and his wife every month! But in traditional fashion, we recognized them during worship service. Chairman of Deacons Lonnie Dean read scripture and presented a gift from the church. And Mrs. Kay had secretly made a beautiful Scripture Quilt for them, using those favorite Bible verses submitted by our congregation members! We love you, Bro. Jeff & Susan!

Trunk or Treat at Rocky Springs Baptist Church was a huge success! We were thrilled to be a part of the event. Thank you to everyone who donated candy, prizes, and games! And thanks to the gals who came to help. It was a fun family atmosphere and everyone had a blast!

Shoeboxes are filled, wrapped, and will be delivered on November 7 to Sardis BC for sorting, packing, and delivering to those precious Native American children in New Mexico! Thank you to those who filled shoeboxes, and to those who donated money for much needed staple items for these families through this ministry!

Message from Bro. Jeff:

“But they will wait upon the Lord”

Isaiah 40:31

The root word, or the word that wait originates from, means to bind together, as you would twist a rope together. The word wait here means to look upon expectantly.

The implication can be as we wait upon God’s will, we bind ourselves in faith to Him as a rope intertwined. Isaiah says that by doing this it renews our strength. We continually know that we are in, and held by, God’s strength.

Remember this: Faith is not always receiving from God what we want; Faith is accepting from God what He gives. Here is what He gives.....Romans 8:28 – “Everything happens for the good of those who Love the Lord.”
